

THE GOOD STUFF

Da Bag

If your goal is to give something truly unique, and you've got a die-hard Bears fan to give to, this tote from Sea Bags will check all the boxes. Handcrafted in Maine from recycled sail cloths, each piece from Sea Bags is created with care. Their bags are durable and can be easily washed. Perfect for graduation season, concert season, or even tailgating before our beloved beat that cheesy team up north.

Hit Me

Adding a little flare to one's golf bag never hurts, so why not give the gift of swag? The Gambling Edition lineup of RTZ wedges from Cleveland Golf looks great with some help from SWAG Golf. The Black Satin finish has some fun artwork ranging from card suits to dice to cash, and much more. In the bag or on display? Your call.

Hole in F1

Perhaps you've heard some of the buzz around the latest irons to speed into the market. The name is no coincidence; McLaren Golf is a company born from Formula 1 engineering with the end result being some serious precision irons. The Series 1 irons are Tour blades and the Series 3 are your more friendly player's distance model. Both utilize a Metal Injection Molding process, not commonly found in club production.

Throwing Shade

Goodr continues to be one of the best sunglasses brands in the game. Why? Durability and affordability. For example, the Retro G, which is available in eight colors and only runs you thirty bucks. The non-reflective lenses are great for the golf course, but can accompany you in the car, or to any of the family barbecues on tap this summer.

Above the Knee

Looking good on Father's Day or around graduation season isn't an option, it's a requirement. Thankfully Callaway has Flat Front Golf Shorts in an array of colors to put the perfect stamp on any outfit, whether it be casual or a little more dressed up. With a 9" inseam, stretch waistband, and sun protection fabric they easily head to the golf course as well. Can't forget about your priorities.

Blanco for any Occasion

For the dad that enjoys a good sip, or the grad that could use their first "grownup bottle," Mijenta offers a variety of incredible tequilas for any taste. The Blanco is an aromatic, easy pour with notes of cantaloupe, honey, and cinnamon. And after they try it, your recipient will figure the bottle costs twice what you actually paid for it. Bonus!

Prime Time

Whether you know a deserving dad or a hard-up grad, a golf bag upgrade is a fantastic gift to give. The new Prime lineup from Big Max features SoftGuard PU material, which is not only premium, but it feels indestructible. Weather resistant, scratch resistant, and soft to the touch, this might be the last golf bag they ever own. Available in three different models, with stand and cart options and in a variety of colors.

Patriotic Pistol

Not only do we see more SuperStroke grips on putters each year, the new designs and colorways from the brand continue to grow as well. This limited-edition putter grip benefits Folds of Honor, with a portion of every sale going to the very deserving foundation that supports spouses and children of fallen and disabled military members. The Zenergy Pistol 1.0 grip is sleek, with a patriotic design and the FOH crest.
